July 13, 2022

On July 13, 2022, at 10:00 a.m. Ralph Manning, Brewer Pope, and Wayne Waldron met in the Chief Appraiser's office to participate in a conference call via Zoom. The meeting was comprised of representatives from Aviagen North America, Inc and Stephanie Williams, Executive Director of Brooks County Development Authority.

The meeting lasted approximately one hour with the only topic of discussion being the current P.I.L.O.T. agreement for Aviagen, specifically on personal property and the ongoing attempt to transfer ownership of the personal property to the Development Authority to make it tax exempt.

No decisions were made during the meeting. The Board reiterated for property to be exempt it must be owned by an exempt entity on January 1 of that year, property is taxable until it is exempt, and refund of taxes must be made by request to the Board of Commissioners.
