Property Visits*

3.1 (Revised 12/12/2017) It is the policy of the Brooks County Board of Tax Assessors that every effort possible shall be made for field inspections to be done in teams of two. Furthermore, when representing the Board of Tax Assessors in the field, appraisers shall drive a clearly marked county vehicle and possess identification or other material which is sufficient to permit the occupant to readily ascertain that such persons are representatives of the Brooks County Board of Tax Assessors'.

3.2 (Adopted 8/15/18) It is the policy of the Brooks County Board of Tax Assessors that appraisal staff attempt to explain to the owner/occupant the reason and scope of visit upon entering the property. A business card or other printed material should be left at residences where no one is home during the inspection.

3.3 (Adopted 01/08/2013) It is the policy of the Brooks County Board of Tax Assessors to contact property owners to arrange for access to parcels which are gated or normally inaccessible.

3.4 (Revised 12/12/2017) It is the policy of the Brooks County Board of Tax Assessors, pursuant to GA law to provide reasonable notice to the owner and occupant of property. Notices regarding visits shall be posted in the permitting office as well as the Assessors' office, and on the county website. In addition, periodic advertisements will be placed in the Quitman Free Press and other local or regional papers as deemed necessary.

3.5* (Revised 12/12/2017) It is the policy of the Brooks County Board of Tax Assessors that the inspection staff follow approved procedures in order to provide for periodic field inspections to identify properties and ensure that property characteristics information is complete and accurate.

3.6 (Adopted 07/14/2009) It is the policy of the Brooks County Board of Assessors that all permits provided by the zoning and inspections office be reviewed for potential field inspections.

3.7 (Adopted 03/09/2022) It is the policy of the Brooks County Board of Assessors that all improvements are valued as of January 1 of each year. Any construction in progress, in addition to a .75 market risk factor for CIP shall be assigned a percentage of completion factor. Percentage of completion shall be estimated as of January 1 and shall be determined using the
